(d) help the Chairman and the Secretary to conduct the necessary elections to the new Executive Committee.

12D. Joint Meetings of Executive Committees.—(1) When a request is received by the Central Government from.

(a) the Controller of Insurance, or

(b) six individuals who are members of either or both of the Executive Committees of the Life Insurance Council and the General Insurance Council, or that a joint meeting of the two Executive Committees should consider a matter specified in the request, the Central Government may, on being satisfied that the matter is one of common interest to the two Executive Committees, direct that a joint meeting of the two Executive Committees be convened to consider the matter.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Chairmen of the two Executive Committees to convene, as soon as may be after the issue of the direction under preceding sub-rule a joint meeting of all the members of the two Executive Committees at such place and at such time and date as the two Chairmen may decide.

(3) At such meeting, one of the two Chairmen shall be elected by the members present to preside and the matter referred to and no other matter shall be considered.

(4) The meeting may be adjourned from time to time to be held not necessarily at the same place, with the consent of the members present for further consideration of the matter or for considering a report from any sub-committee appointed for the purpose by the members present, but minutes of each meeting shall be kept and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the Controller of Insurance immediately after the meeting."

V. In Rule 14 (7) for the figure and letter "IV-A" the figure and letter "IV-C" shall be substituted.

VI. For Rules 16-17A inclusive, the following headings and Rules shall be substituted, namely :—

"LICENSES AND CERTIFICATES

16. License fee for insurance agents and collection thereof.—The fee for obtaining or renewing a license to act as an insurance agent shall be Rs. 5 provided that an additional fee of Rs. 2 shall be paid if the application for the renewal of the license does not reach the Controller at least 30 days before the date on which the license ceases to remain in force.

16A. Issue of licenses to insurance agents.—An individual who desires to obtain or renew a license to act as an insurance agent shall proceed as follows :—

(a) He shall obtain from the Controller of Insurance a form of application for a license which form shall be as prescribed in Form V or V-A. Form V shall be used where the applicant applies for a license for the first time or for a fresh license, while form V-A shall be used when the applicant applies for the renewal of the license already held by him.

(b) He shall then send to the Controller of Insurance the completed application form with the fee which shall be paid in the form of stamps to the value of Rs. 5 or Rs. 7, as the case may be, and the stamp shall be affixed to the application in the proper place.

(c) The Controller of Insurance of the officer authorised by him under sub-section (1) of section 42 of the Act shall, after taking all reasonable steps to satisfy himself that the application is in order and that the applicant is not disqualified from holding a license, issue a license to him. The license shall be in Form V-B attached to the application form in Form V or V-A as the case may be. No application shall be considered by the Controller of Insurance unless the particulars required to be filled in by the applicant in Form V-B have been filled in by him.

(d) No application for the renewal of license will be accepted if it reaches the Controller on or after the date on which the licence ceases to be in force:

Provided, however, that if an applicant desires that his application should be considered under the proviso to sub-section (3A) of section 42 of the Act, he shall forward along with such application a request to that effect, with stamps to the value of Rs. 30 affixed thereon and a statement of all the facts and particulars which are to be taken into consideration by the Controller for the purpose of examining whether undue hardship would be caused if no renewal of licence is granted :

Provided further that the applicant if required to do so by the Controller, shall furnish documentray proof of any of the particulars or facts mentioned in the statement referred to above.

16B. Bona fide insurance agents for the purposes of section 41.—The conditions to be satisfid by an insurance agent to establish that he is a bona fide insurance agent employed by the insurer for the purposes of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 41 of the Act shall be the following namely :—

(a) He must have secured policies on six different lives excluding his own.

(b) He must have been an insurance agent continuously from the time of his soliciting or procuring the first policy on each of such six lives or proposing for the policy on his own life, whichever is earlier, till the time when the policies on those six lives and the policy on his own life have all been issued.

16C. Fee for Principal, Chief and Special Agents.—The fee for obtaining or renewing a certificate to act as a principal agent or chief agent shall be Rs. 25 and the fee for obtaining or renewing a certificate to act as a special agent shall be Rs. 10.

Provided that an additional fee of Rs. 5 in the case of a principal agent or a chief agent, and Rs. 3 in the case of a special agent, shall be paid, if the application for renewal of the certificate reaches the Controller on or after the date on which the certificate ceases to be in force but within 12 months of the aforesaid date.

16D. Issue of certificates to Principal, Chief and Special Agents.—A person who desires to obtain or renew a certificate to act a principal agent, or chief agent or special agent, shall proceed as follows :—

(a) He shall obtain from the Controller a form of application for a certificate which form shall be as prescribed in Form V-C or Form V-D. Form V-C shall be used when an applicant applies for a certificate for the first time, or for a fresh certificate, while Form V-D shall be used when the applicant applies for the renewal of the certificate already held by him. No application for the renewal of a certificate will be accepted if it reaches the Controller after a period of 12 months from the date on which the certificate ceases to be in force.

(b) He shall then send to the Controller the completed application form with stamps to the value of Rs. 25 or Rs. 30 or Rs. 10 or Rs. 13 as the case may be, affixed thereon in the proper place.

(c) The Controller or the officer authorised by him under sub-section (1) of section 42A of the Act shall, after taking all reasonable steps to satisfy himself that the application is in order and that the applicant is not disqualified from holding a certificate, issue a certificate in Form V-E.

16E. Issue of duplicate licenses and certificates.—(a) A person to whom a license or a certificate has been issued shall, if such license or certificate has been lost, destroyed or mutilated, submit to the Controller an application requesting the issue of a duplicate license or certificate with a fee of Re. 1 in the case of a license, and Rs. 2 in the case of a certificate, paid in the form of stamp duly affixed thereon and with a declaration giving full details regarding the issue and loss, destruction or mutilation of the license or certificate, and the mutilated pieces, if any, shall be returned to the Controller with the said application.

(b) The Controller, after satisfying himself that the original license or certificate has been lost, destroyed, or mutilated, issue a duplicate license in Form V-B or a certificate in Form V-E as the case may be, with an endorsement thereon that it is a duplicate.

16F. Description of stamp.—Any fee specified in Rules 16, 16A, 16C, 16D and 16E shall be paid in the form of "Government of India Insurance" stamps available from a Government Treasury.

16G. Allowance for unused stamps.—Where an applicant for a license or a certificate has inadvertently used 'Government of India Insurance' stamp of a greater value than is necessary or where no license or certificate in respect of an application bearing such stamp has been issued, refund may be made of the excess of the necessary fee or of the value of the stamp, as the case may be, on such application.

16H. Cancellation of licences or certificates.—Where the Controller cancels the license of an insurance agent under sub-section (5) of section 42 or the certificate of a principal or chief or special agent under sub-section (4) of section 42A, he shall—

(a) inform all the officers authorised by him under sub-section (1) of section 42 or 42A that the license or the certificate, as the case may be, has been cancelled ;

(b) require the person concerned to return the license or certificate issued to him ; and

(c) cause the fact of cancellation to be published in the Gazette of India and in such State Gazette or Gazettes as he deems fit.

SHARES, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSAL.

17. Declaration as to the nature of ownership of shares.—The declaration to be furnished by a transferee in pursuance of clause (b) (i) of sub-section (4) of section 6A of the Act to a public company limited by shares having its registered office in the States and carrying on life insurance business shall be in Form V-F.

17A. Declaration as to beneficial interest in shares.—The declaration to be made in pursuance of sub-section (5) of section 6A of the Act to a public company limited by shares having its registered office in the States and carrying on life insurance business by a person who has any interest in any of its shares standing in the name of another person shall be in Form V-G.

17B. Disposal of shares by Administrator-General.—As soon as the Administrator-General of a State has taken charge of any shares of a public company vesting in him under sub-section (8) of section 6A of the Act, he shall furnish full details of the shares to the Controller and he shall try, as soon as may be, to sell the shares, whether as a whole or in part or whether in the open market or by private sale, at a price not lower than the price fixed by the Controller who may vary the price fixed from time to time. The proceeds shall be handed over to such person as, in the opinion of the Administrator-General, is by law entitled thereto.

LIMITATION OF EXPENSES OF MANAGEMENT.

17C. Statement on the Bases of Premiums.—(1) The statement of the bases of premiums under sub-section (1) of section 40B of the Act shall be in Form V-H.

(2) In respect of premiums currently used by an insurer at the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950, the statement of the bases of premiums certified by an actuary shall be furnished to the Controller within six months from such commencement.

(3) A statement on the bases of premiums to be newly used after such commencement certified by an actuary shall be furnished to the Controller before such premiums are offered by the insurer to prospective policy holders.

17D. Limitation of expenses of management in life insurance business.—After the 31st day of December, 1950, no insurer shall, in respect of the life insurance business transacted by him in India, spend as expenses of management in any calendar year an amount exceeding the aggregate sum of—

(i) five per cent, of all premiums received during the year on policies granting an immediate annuity or a deferred annuity in consideration of a single premium, and five per cent, of all premiums received on other single premium policies during the year;

(ii) ten per cent, of all first year's premiums and four per cent, of all renewal premiums received during the year on policies granting deferred annuity in consideration of more than one premium;

(iii) one-twentieth of one per cent, of the total sum assured by policies on which no further premiums are payable;

(iv) one per cent, of all annuities paid during the year;

(v) an amount computed on the basis of the percentages for the time being appropriate to the duration of the insurer's life insurance business specified in the following table, namely :—

Duration of insurers' life insurance business	Percentage of premiums (less reinsurance) received during the year of first year's premiums	of renewal premiums
First four year	100	20
Fifth to seventh years	96½	19
Eighth to tenth years	93	18
After the tenth year, if the insurer's business in force—
(a) is less than two crores of rupees ...	90	18
(b) is less than five crores of rupees but not less than two crores of rupees.	90	17
(c) is less than ten crores of rupees but not less than five crores of rupees.	90	16
(d) is not less than ten crores of rupees ...	90	15

Provided that the percentages specified in the above table shall in respect of any first year's premium where the maximum premiums paying period under the policy is not throughout life nor more than eleven years, be reduced to a number equal to seven and a half times the number of whole years in that period.

Explanation.—In this rule, "business in force" means, in relation to any expense incurred, the total sum assured, with bonuses, without taking into account reinsurances ceded or accepted, by an insurer in respect of the whole of his life insurance business on the last working day of the year preceding the calendar year in which the expense is incurred.

17E. Limitation of expenses of management in general insurance business.—(1) After the 31st day of December 1949, no insurer shall in respect of general insurance business transacted by him in India other than marine insurance business, spend in any calendar year as expenses of management, including commission or remuneration for procuring business an amount exceeding the sum of—

(i) the amount of commission or other remuneration paid to insurance agents and principal agents in respect of that business transacted in the year but not exceeding 15 per cent of the gross premium income written direct in India in respect of that business in the year ; and

(ii) an amount computed on the bases of the percentages appropriate to the various parts of total gross premium income written direct in India during the year :

Part of the total gross premium income of the insurer written direct in India (Fire and Miscellaneous business combined)	Percentage of premiums
First 10 lakhs of rupees	35
Next 5 lakhs of rupees	32½
Next 5 lakhs of rupees	30
Next 7½ lakhs of rupees	27½
Next 7½ lakhs of rupees	25
Next 10 lakhs of rupees	22½
The balance	20

(2) After the 31st day of December 1949, no insurer shall, in respect of marine insurance business transacted by him in India, spend in any calendar year as expenses of management, including commission or remuneration for procuring business an amount exceeding the sum of—

(i) the amount of commission or other remuneration paid to insurance agents and principal agents in respect of that business transacted in the year but not exceeding in amount ten per cent of the gross premium income written direct in India in respect of that business in the year ; and

(ii) an amount computed on the basis of percentages appropriate to the various parts of his total gross premium income written direct in India during the year :

Part of the total gross premium income of the insurer written direct in India	Percentage of premiums
First 5 lakhs of rupees	25
Next 5 lakhs of rupees	22½
Next 5 lakhs of rupees	20
Next 7½ lakhs of rupees	17½
The balance	15

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rules (1) and (2), an insurer may during the first ten years of his general insurance business, spend in any calendar year as expenses of management including commission or remuneration for procuring business an additional amount, in respect of his general insurance business, not exceeding—

(i) during the first three years, the interest earned on the paid-up capital in that year;

(ii) during the second period of three years, an amount equal to 10 per cent, of the gross premium income written direct in India or to the interest earned on the paid-up capital in the year, whichever is less;

(iii) during the seventh and eighth years an amount equal to 5 per cent of the gross premium income written direct in India, or to three-fourths of the interest earned on the paid-up capital in that year whichever is less: Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to regulate the expenses of an insurer in any such year if his gross premium income in that year exceeds twenty-five lakhs of rupees;

(iv) during the ninth and tenth years an amount equal to 3 per cent of the gross premium income written direct in India, or to half of the interest earned on the paid-up capital in that year whichever is less: Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to regulate the expenses of an insurer in any such year if his gross premium income in that year exceeds twenty-five lakhs of rupees.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, where two or more insurers carry on general insurance business, to one of whom the other or each of the others stands in the relation of a subsidiary company within the meaning of the Indian Companies Act 1913, the percentages specified in this rule shall be deemed to be the percentages of the aggregate premiums of the two insurers or all the insurers as the case may be and the insurers together shall not spend as expenses of management anything in excess of the limits specified herein.

17F. Head Office expenses.—The share of the Head Office expenses in the case of an insurer having his principal place of business outside India for the purposes of sections 40B and 40C of the Act shall not be less than—

(i) in respect of life insurance business 10 per cent of the first year's premium as shown in the revenue account, and 1 per cent of the renewal premiums as shown in the revenue account in respect of that business transacted in India during the year; and

(ii) in respect of general insurance business 5 per cent of the gross premium income written direct in India during the year in respect of that business.

CONTRAVENTION OF LIMITATION OF EXPENSES AND TARIFF REGULATIONS.

17G. Action against Extravagant Life Insurers.—(1) If it appears from the report of an actuarial valuation under sub-section (3) of section 64K of the Act read with the statutory returns relating to accounts that the insurer concerned is insolvent, the Controller may cancel the registration of such insurer and request the Executive Committee of the Life Insurance Council to consider whether in the circumstances of the case it is possible to have the business of the insurer reconstructed or whether some other insurer is willing to take over the business.

(2) When such a request is received, the Executive Committee of the Life Insurance Council shall meet not later than one month of the receipt of such request to consider the matter and within 7 days of such meeting shall communicate its decision to the Controller.

(3) If the Executive Committee is unable to meet within the time specified in sub-rule (2) or is unable to suggest any practical steps for the reconstruction or transfer, the Controller may as soon as may be, apply to the Court for the winding up of that insurer.

(4) If the valuation under sub-section (3) of section 64K does not disclose the insurer to be insolvent, the actuary making the investigation shall append to his report a statement whether an encroachment on the bonus loadings contained in the premiums has occurred and whether such encroachment is due either partly or wholly to heavy expenses incurred by the insurer after giving credit for any profits made in other directions. The Controller may request the Executive Committee of the Life Insurance Council for advice so that such encroachment may neither continue nor recur and the Executive Committee shall meet within a month of the receipt of such request and make such recommendations as it deems fit.

(5) On receipt of the recommendations referred to in sub-rule (3) or sub-rule (4) the Controller may issue such directions to the insurer concerned as he deems fit and if the insurer complies with such directions, the cancelled registration may be revived wherever possible or where it is not so possible, the insurer may be registered afresh.

(6) If the directions are not complied with, the Controller may apply to the Court for the winding up of the insurer.

17H. Action against Extravagant General Insurers.—(1) In pursuance of sub-section (3) of section 64M of the Act, the Controller may :—

(a) cancel the registration of the insurer under the Act, and

(b) request the Executive Committee of the General Insurance Council to consider practical steps for the reconstruction of the insurer concerned or for transferring its business to some other insurer.

(2) When such a request as is referred to in the preceding sub-rule is received by the Executive Committee of the General Insurance Council, it shall meet not later than one month of the receipt of such request to consider the request and within 7 days of such meeting shall communicate its decision to the Controller.

(3) The Controller may, after considering the recommendations of the Executive Committee in this behalf apply to the court for the winding up of the insurer concerned if he thinks fit.

17I. Regional Councils and Committees.—(1) The General Insurance Council may constitute one Regional Council for each of the Bombay, Calcutta, Delhi and Madras areas.

(2) Any Regional Council so formed shall consist of seven individuals at least four of whom shall be elected by the members of the Insurance Association of India carrying on general insurance business in that area.

(3) Under any such Regional Council there shall be a separate Sectional Committee for each of the three classes of insurance, viz., fire, marine and miscellaneous, and each such Committee shall consist of seven individuals, of which at least four shall be elected by members of the Insurance Association of India carrying on that class of general insurarce business in that area.

17J. Penalties for Tariff Breaches.—(1) Where an insurer is guilty of contravening any regulations made under sub-section (1) of section 64O the Tariff Committee of the General Insurance Council may, after considering the nature and gravity of such contravention, take one or more of the following courses of action against such an insurer :—

(a) Administering a censure or warning in addition to correction of the defect or cancellation of the policy ;

(b) imposing a fine not exceeding Rs. 1,000 ; and

(c) disqualifying him for a limited period not exceeding three years from voting at any election to the Executive Committee, to the Regional Councils or to the Sectional Committees of the Regional Councils.

(2) Where an insurer has been subjected to any penal action under (b) or (c) above, he may appeal to the Central Government within 30 days of the taking of such penal action.

17K. Appeal by Agents against Disciplinary Action.—(1) A principal agent or an insurance agent who has been restrained by any Regional Council or any Committee thereof under sub-section (3) of section 64Q of the Act from procuring or causing to be procured general insurance business from any area, may appeal to the Central Government within thirty days of the imposition of such restraint on him.

(2) The Central Government may for the purpose of disposing of any appeal under this rule require such information supported by documentary proof wherever possible from the agent concerned as it may require."

VII. After Rule 24, the following Rules shall be inserted, namely:—

"24A. Fees payable on referring Disputed Claims to Controller.—(1) The fee payable at the time of referring to the Controller a dispute relating to the settlement of a claim on a policy of life insurance under sub-section (1) of section 47A of the Act is rupees ten or one rupee for each hundred rupees or part thereof of the amount of the claim (including any profit or bonus), whichever is greater.

(2) Any fee specified in this rule shall be paid in the form of 'Government of India Insurance Agent License Fee' stamps available on payment from a Government Treasury and the stamp shall be affixed on the application or letter referring the dispute to the Controller and superscribed with the signature of the claimant.

24B. Fees payable to the Councils.—(1) The fees payable by a member or associate member who is an insurer carrying on life insurance business to the Life Insurance Council in each calendar year shall be computed according to the premium income from life insurance business in the manner specified in items (i) to (vi) in sub-rule (2) of rule 24.

(2) The fees payable by a member or associate member who is an insurer carrying on general insurance business to the General Insurance Council shall be computed according to the total premium income from all classes of general insurance business in the manner specified in items (i) to (vi) of sub-rule (2) of rule 24.
